RAIC Syllabus Links Policy

The RAIC Syllabus believes strongly in the utility of hyperlinks, which allow users to point directly to content, whether on the same site or an external site. The Syllabus uses hyperlinks to give the user easy access to additional information or original source material.

The RAIC Syllabus links directly to external resources within its NEWS postings, Contacts and other features. Direct links save time for Students, Alumni and Faculty. When applicable, we attribute the link to its source, to help users gauge for themselves the value of the content at the destination.

When linking to Syllabus content – or when requesting a reciprocal link to an external resource – please observe similar practices, as a courtesy and (in some instances) a legal necessity.

Please do:

- Link to RAIC Syllabus content directly. The Syllabus encourages direct links. You may link from another site to the RAIC Syllabus' PUBLIC ONLINE CONTENT ONLY including reviews, articles, features, video and audio clips.
- Observe all copyright laws. Failure to do so will result in disciplinary action and/or litigation.
- You are welcome to use the title or headline of the article to which you are linking, as long as you link directly to the article.

Please do not:

- Link to protected secure content from within the Student, Alumni or Faculty sections. Doing so will result in disciplinary action and/or litigation.
- Use RAIC Syllabus content, headline or images to link anywhere but directly to the RAIC Syllabus Website.
- Attribute a link on your site to the RAIC Syllabus and then link somewhere else.
- Frame RAIC Syllabus materials or otherwise present the content as your own.
- Use any images from the RAIC Syllabus Website on your site.
